

Discovering the Subjective Experience of the Infant through Research and Practice Seminar

30th November 2024, 9.30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. inc. lunch

We are delighted to invite you to our upcoming education seminar, Discovering the Subjective Experience of the Infant through Research and Practice. This in-person event in Melbourne CBD (TBC) marks our first opportunity to gather in person since the start of the pandemic, making it an especially meaningful occasion for our community.

The seminar honours the work of Brigid Jordan and her remarkable contribution to the field of infant mental health.

Tickets: $35 Members | $45 Non-members

TICKETS Visit Website

Try Booking tickets will close 23rd November. It will not be recorded.*

Any queries can be emailed to vicpresident@aaimh.org.au.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Australian Association
for Infant Mental Health
Victorian Branch